Notes

From a letter from Barbara Fahey, descendant of Benjamin Vandolah, brother of our James.

"Our original ancestor to America was Hendrick "Henry". Said to be from Holland. Settling on Sandy Ridge, Amurell Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey circa 1725. I have wondered if he could be from Northern Belgium as it was once part of Holland and today still speaks Dutch. An unknown source said he was from Vunendall, Utrecht, Holland and had a first wife named Elizabeth. Wish I knew where this was found??" So Barbara doesn't know the source of this either.

Also Barbara says that the original Vandolah Farm in New Jersey stayed in son, Garrett's family for over 200 years and descendants still have some of it.

From the genealogy given to me by Linda Schlatter: Originated from Chris Hankins.

Hendrick VanDolah was born in Holland (Now Northern Belgium.) The Dutch spelling may be "Van Doolaege". Immigration to America about 1725. Hendrick could not write. All of his children were born in Hunterdon County, New Jersey. Hendrick VanDolah is buried in Barber Cemetery, Hunterdon County, Sandy Ridge, New Jersey. The family arrived in Green County, Ohio in 1803. Peter died in Greene County, Ohio.

The VanDolah Homestead is 2 miles East of Stockton and 2 miles West of Mount Airy Station on Flemington RR. His ancestors still own this homestead. It has been in the family for 150 years.

There is an old rifle that was owned and used by Hendrick VanDolah. It is 160 years old and still in the VanDolah family.

The School House known as VanDolah School House has been there 100 years.

From Chris Hankins:

Arrived in US probably from Holland (possibly from the area that is now Flanders, Belgium, about 1725

Earliest document bearing his name is dated 1731, Hunterdon County.

In 1738 he purchased 250+ acres there.

d there Nov/Dec. 1743

1731.....his signature appears on a bill for "sundry goods", purchased from Lewis Moore at Hunterdon Co., Amwell Twp., New Jersey

1736.....his signature appears on an "article of agreement" between Isaac Stelle and Hendrick Vandolah at Hunterdon Co., Amwell Twp, New Jersey interesting if that means an X as some say he could not write??

1738.....May 6.....at Hunterdon, NJ, purchased property from Marcellison of 220 acres

1738.....May 17.....at Hunterdon, N.J., indenture sold some of his land to Richard Hains

1740.....speaks of Vandolah's Rill, probably on a tributary of the Delaware River.

1741.....Hunterdon, N.J. speaks of Hendrick being a Freeholder, which had certain requirements.

1744.....April 18.....at Hunterdon, signed a receipt to Capt. Derrick Hoagland from "Sarah Johnson" widow of Henry Vandolah.

This looks like then that after Hendrick died in 1743, Sarah remarried a Johnson. His name will appear later and seems Chris believes this also.

1743.....December 5.....Hunterdon, N.J., widow leases Hendrick's property to Andrew Orison

From the History of Hunterdon and Somerset Counties, New Jersey by James P. Snell

Published at Philadelphia, by Everts and Peck, 1881

Biography of Hendrick Vandolah who in 1725 came to the Vandolah Homestead situated in old Amwell Township, now Delaware and adjoins lands with the Sandy Ridge Baptist Church property two miles east of Stockton and two miles west of Mount Airy Station on the Flemington Railroad. Here he lived and leased this land until 1738 when he purchased 250 (?) acres of an 800 acre tract owned then by Edon Marcellison of Bound Brook in Middlesex Co., N.J. for the sum of 162 pounds, lawful money of the Province as the deed will show given May 1738. Hendrick Vandolah lived and raised a family of 5 children, GARRET, JOHN, PETER, ANNA WILGUS & CHARITY HAUSMAN. John died young. Peter went to Fayette Co., PA and Garret by paying legacies owned the Homestead and raised a large family of children.

One of the sons was an officer and the rest except Henry were soldiers (privates) in the Continental Army in the Rev. War and from there brought smallpox to the family so that all the children died of it except Henry and Sarah. Henry died in 1815 with a family of Mary, William, John, Catherine, Garret, Elizabeth, Cyrus and Henrietta. Sarah married William Wilson, the father of Garret V. Wilson who died in Brookville about 1872 and was the father of Rev. Charles Wilson, deceased, of Holmdel, N.J. and Rev. William V. Wilson of Port Monmouth, N.J.

Garret by payment of legacies became the owner of the Homestead in 1818 just 100 hundred years after his great grandfather, Hendrick, brought it into the family, and by his will in 1876 bequeathed the same to his nephew Cyrus Vandolah, Jr. There is an old rifle in possession of Cyrus Vandolah, Jr. that was owned and used by Hendrick Vandolah and was by will bequeathed to the Homestead owners of this family. It was used by one of the Vandolah's in the Revolution, and consequently must be over 160 years old.

There are many graves in the Church yard of Sandy Ridge adjoining this old homestead property. Garret Vandolah dug the first grave in 1818 in which Hannah Doyle of Bucks Co., PA was buried. She was one of that family from which that county seat took its original name, Doyles Town. The lot upon which the School House stands, known as Vandolah's School House, was leased from the Vandolah tract in 1822.

So far from all of the above I am not clear on the "leasing of property and the purchase of property". It would appear that Hendrick leased until 1738 and then purchased land. Not sure just which land he purchased but it must have been in the same vicinity of the leased land. The land he purchased in 1738 from a Mr. Marcelison must not have been the property this said Marcelison was living on as he was reported to be of Middlesex County, New Jersey, quite some distance away from the "Vandolah Homestead" as it is described today and still in the hands of the Garret Vandolah family. However, biographies have been known to be incorrect at times so he may have owned the original also. More info needed to clear that one up for me.

The Ann Lyons genealogy says that Barber Cemetery is in Delaware Township, Hunterdon Co., NJ

Notes

Barbara Fahey says that Sarah married 2nd, after Hendricks death, a William Johnson.

Chris Hankins says that she married after Henrick's death, Johnnnes Johnson.

ements leading to this belief:

On April 18, 1744, his widow signed a receipt, to Capt. Derrick Hoagland, from "Sarah Johnson" widow of Henry Vandolah.

In 1800, son Peter witnessed the will of Johannes Johnson (whom Chris believes was his step-father). Two other witnesses were James Ashton and James Dalrymple.
Perhaps that is where the possible Dalrymple name comes from which some think was Sarah's maiden name.

The Ann Lyons genealogy shows that Sarah's name was possibly GARRISON born about 1706.

Notes

Barbara Fahey gives Peter's death as November 7, 1815 in Greene County, Ohio

Also gives these sources for the information she has on Peter and his family.....

1773 Rosstrauer Township, Bedford Co., PA
 1785 Fayette County, PA
 1790 Washington Township, Fayette Co., PA
 about 1803 came to Greene County, Ohio
 Hester was in Greene County, in 1820

These appear to be the places they lived in those years, rather than the actual source.

The genealogy given to me by Linda Schlatter gives a marriage year of 1759.

Hendrick VanDolah was born in Holland (Now Northern Belgium.) The Dutch spelling may be "Van Doolaeghe". Immigration to America about 1725. Hendrick could not write. All of his children were born in Hunterdon County, New Jersey. Hendrick VanDolah is buried in Barber Cemetery, Hunterdon County, Sandy Ridge, New Jersey. The family arrived in Green County, Ohio in 1803. Peter died in Greene County, Ohio.

Peter VanDolah arrived in Green Co., Ohio in 1803. He could not write.

e-mail from Chris Hankins:

Peter moved to Bedford Co., PA in 1772 (later became Washington Co., and then Fayette Co., PA)
 Early 1800's moved to Greene County, Ohio Early, Bedford County covered a large part of this area.

Time line of items from Chris Hankins:

1756.....Nov. 10, Hunterdon, N.J., Amwell Twp., was a witness of "Johannes Johnson's will".
 1772.....Was on official Assessment rolls
 1773.....Taxpayer in Bedford Co., Rostraver Twp. (early Bedford was split several times)
 1783.....Taxpayer in Westmoreland Co., Rostraver Twp. (Same place as above. new Co. name)
 Taxed on 200 acres, 3 horses, 3 cattle, 3 sheep and 8 inhabitants.
 1785-1789.....Taxpayer in Fayette Co., PA
 1787.....Peter purchased 207 3/4 acres in Washington Twp., Fayette Co., PA
 1790.....Fayette Co., PA, Peter was on a list to petition for a new state.
 1790.....Census for 1790 Fayette Co., Bullskin Twp., 3 males 16 and up and 1 female.
 1793.....Sept. 23.....Peter releases his rights in the Homestead back in N.J. to his brother, Garret
 1800.....Census for 1800, Fayette Co., Washington Twp.
 1800.....Sometime around 1800 there was a purchase of 400 acres in Ross Co., Ohio, which ended up belonging to another person and there was some problems about this land even after the boys were all grown up. From the way it reads after all this time, they may have received other land in the place of it. Do not know if that "other land" was in Greene Co. or not.
 1802.....Purchased Lot #11 at "Wisky Mount", east side of Monongahela River. Signed by Mark of Peter and Hester.
 1804.....Peter made out his will, apparently forgetting to tell the boys the 400 acres he had purchased in Ross Co., and that they had lived on for some time was really not his.

in Ross Co., and that they had lived on for some time was really not his.
1808.....Peter sold property to Hugh Thompson for $1700. Deed recorded May 23, 1808

Named as Hester Dalrymple in WFT; as born in 1738 in Scotland.
More info needed on this.

Also on this same note I have listed James Dalrymple married Eremiah about 1759. Not sure now what the connection is. Check internet for connection.

Apparently Chris Hankins also believes that Hester may have been a Dalrymple. Following is a listing of some of the Dalrymple family:

James Dalrymple, married Eremiah (?) and he died 1783/84 in Amwell Twp., Hunterdon, NJ Children:

1. Edmund, b. March 22, 1752, d. July 19, 1845
2. Thomas, b. Dec. 22, 1753, d. 1834 md. to Elizabeth Bilbee
3. Jesse, b. March 20, 1756, d. May 31, 1844 md. to Esther Kitchen May 31, 1778
4. John, b. 1759, d., 1838 Preble Co. Ohio, md. 1785 to Hannah Rittenhouse
5. Levi, b. April 5, 1761, d. March 19, 1833, md. to Mary
6. Sarah, b. 1765
7. Evan, b. August 17, 1776, d. May 3, 1846, md. Sept. 7, 1799 to Mary Williams

All children born in Amwell Township, Hunterdon Co., New Jersey

Also a Samuel Dalrymple, born 1746 in Scotland md. to Elizabeth
Chris feels that Samuel could be a brother to Hester and James and a unidentified Catherine.

Evidence is possibly the names of James children, such as Jesse and John who appear in the children of Hester. Also Thomas appears and we do have Thomas Vandolahs here in Indiana. Could come from another family entirely as I have not looked into it. But if James and Hester were brother and sister and named their children Jesse and John, it would probably indicate that there may have been a Jesse and John Dalrymple in their ancestor list.

Notes

A short note in the Green County, Ohio, History says this:

Talking about the 1803 term of the first supreme court of Green County it says " At this term, in the case of William Orr vs. Peter Borders, leave was given to amend the declaration, on payment of costs - an indication that some attention began to be paid to special pleading. The first civil case that was tried by a jury, was that of Wallingsford vs Vandolah. A verdict was rendered for the plaintiff of 24 cents, upon which "he paid the jury and constable fees."

From Chris Hankins to continue the story: "At November term of the Court of Common Pleas.....the first civil case was tried by a jury. It was the case of Wallingsford vs. Vandolah, for slander. Wallingsford was a member of the Baptist Church, and Vandolah had said "Wallingsford is a liar, and I can prove it". A verdict of 25 cents was rendered for the plaintiff.

Case of Benjamin Wallingsford vs Joseph Vandolah.....

On the 17th day of March in the year of 1804, the Honorable Francis Dunlevy, Esq., presiding judge of the Court of Common Pleas commanded that the sheriff take Joseph Vandolah if he be found and keep him safely. He is asking for damages of $300.00. The case continues in June of 1804. Ben is represented by Arthur St. Clair. He states in a lengthy diatribe that he had been a chaste and honorable man and never known to be addicted to lying, prevaricating, and falsifying his word and hath been accounted esteemed and reputed amongst straight, good, honest and prudent citizens as well. On the 5th day of February in 1804 certain false, feigned and scandalous words were said in the hearing of others. Joseph uttered the following words he, meaning the said Benjamin is a liar and I can prove it. Ben states further that his good reputation has been lost. He has been greatly hurt in his good name and reputation and has lost comfort, benefit, and advantages of being a member of the said society of Baptists and the satisfaction of their communion in the worship of his maker.

A short sketch of Joseph Vandolah.....from the BELLBROOK MOON, of Bellbrook, Ohio and sent to me by Margaret Hawk. "The collection of 1893"

A short sketch of Joseph Vandolah and how he got his wife about 80 years ago. Mr. Hand owned the farm where Newton Berryhill and John Underwood now live. He lived in a double log cabin that stood opposite the brick house where Matthew Berryhill now lives. Mr. Hand had a daughter called "Polly" for short, who was a young woman. One evening a young man by the name of Joseph Vandolah called at Mr. Hand's and asked if he could get to stay overnight. Mr. Hand with pioneer hospitality told him he could. The young gentleman was dressed in a buckskin hunting shirt, homespun pantaloons, coonskin cap and barefooted. He carried in his hand a stocking leg in which were 200 silver dollars. He was on his way to the land office situated at Cincinnati to enter the quarter section of land opposite where Msr. Hand lived and now owned by Matthew Berryhill. It is not known to this day which Miss Polly fancied most, Joseph's garb which covered true manly principles, her person, or the stocking leg!

Probably a combination of the whole. It soon became evident that she fancied the combination. It so happened, as such things do sometimes, that Joseph became enamored of Polly, which might be called a case of love at first sight, for before they slept that night, they had exchanged vows of love and fidelity, and before separating they fixed the date when Joseph was to return and seal their vows for life.

When the time came for Joseph to return and claim his fiancée, he thought, as it was to be the second most eventful day of a man's life, he must fix himself up in a more respectable garb, so he put on his Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes and punctually appeared at the house of Polly. His clothes changed his appearance so that Polly did not know him, but Joseph introduced himself as the man who carried the stocking leg, and they were married all the same. Joseph took his honeymoon at home erecting his log cabin in the woods upon the land which the two hundred dollars bought. They seemed to be well mated and lived a _____ peaceable life. He was not _____ bred but was sober and had _____ principles. He was a great bee hunter and would dig ginseng in the summer and dry it and carry it to Lebanon on his back and sell it and walk home, a distance of 28 miles round trip. One prolific year he dug more than he thought he could carry. He went to his neighbor, John Hawkins and asked him to lend him a horse. It was in November and quite cool weather. Mr. Hawkins granted his request and told him he must wear a pair of his shoes.

To accommodate Mr. Hawkins, he put the shoes on and wore them. When he came home he took the horse and shoes home and thanked Mr. Hawkins for the use of the horse and said to him, "You will not fool me again by getting me to wear them shoes." He said it rained on him and the water ran down his legs into his shoes and kept his feet cold all day, when, he said, if he had been barefooted, his feet would have dried off and kept warm.

They had five children, James, Joseph, William, Sarah and Benjamin. William died when he was about 12 years old. Mr. Vandolah was soon called to his final reward. James learned the millwright trade, which he followed through his life. He and Samuel Lam built and owned the Washington Mills that burned down a few years ago. He built the Evans Mill below Spring Valley and owned it in partnership with Mr. Evans. John Duck of this place learned the millwright trade under him. He married Rebecca Tucker, who was the daughter of Reason Tucker. They were married at the bride's home at Washington Mills, Squire John James officiating, which event occurred in about the year 1832.

The widow Vandolah after living some time, came to the conclusion that it might be better to have a man to help manage her affairs, so she married William Whicker and bore him two children, William and Stephen. Finally she concluded that a man was not always what they were "cracked up to be". They differed and separated and in due time, were divorced, which occurred about the year 1835. The Vandolah heirs sold their farm to Matthew Berryhill and moved to Clifton and lived a year or two, where Sarah was married and James and his father-in-law built a mill, after which they all moved to Indiana beyond Fort Wayne where James and Mr. Tucker built a mill _____ - At last account both James and Joseph were dead.

In a letter from Barbara Fahey, desc. of Benjamin Vandolah she says: "I've not seen the documents but believe some or all of Joseph Vandolah and Mary Polly Hand's children could have been raised by others. They were all quite young when Joseph died. My note (Benjamin was born in 1814 and Joseph died in 1814. The eldest, Joseph would have been about 9 at the time of his father's death)

Mary Polly remarried and divorced a William Whicker.

Sources listed from Barbara Fahey on Joseph.....

1785 & 86 Washington Township, Fayette Co., PA
 1803 to Sugar Creek Township, Greene County, Ohio
 Owned land in Greene County, Range 5, Township 4, Section 36, SW quarter, 160 acres
 Value in 1825 $880
 1800 tax residing between Great and Little Miami Rivers, Ohio
 Death 1814 in Sugar Creek Township, Greene County, Ohio...death notice says, son of Peter Birth of wife, Mary Polly Hand, given as 1786 to 1788 in Westfield, Essex County, New Jersey

Notes from Margaret Hawk a Hand descendant:

She has Joseph's birthdate as about 1765 and his birth place as Fayette. She says "The story of his marriage to Mary Polly Hand was found in page 25, Vol 1, in scrapbook of articles from the Bellbrook Moon, published about 1895 in the collection of the Greene County Library, Zenia, Ohio. No date of the marriage was given, and no record has been found, but it probably occurred between 1805 - 08. The land his children inherited from him and sold in 1835 was in Sugar Creek Township, the SW quarter of Section 36, Fractional Twp 4, Range 5, which lies about one mile south of Bellbrook. Research by Barbara Fahey of Newport, OR (1997) indicates he may have been some 20 years older than Polly Hand and that he may be identical to the Joseph Vandolah who was on tax list in Washington Township, Fayette Co., PA, in 1785 and 1786 and that he may have been a brother of Peter Vandolah who also was in Greene Co., Ohio at the same time as Joseph." My note: The marriage must have taken place about 1804 as son Joseph was born June 14, 1805.

From the genealogy of Linda Schlatter:

The sons, JOSEPH, James & Peter got land from Military Land Grant signed by President James Madison, in 1809.

She has Joseph's birthyear as 1763, and buried in Zenia, Greene Twp., Co.
 And marriage 1803 in Sugar Creek Twp., Greene Co., Ohio

From the Bellbrook Moon of Bellbrook, Ohio.....Collection of 1893

The widow Vandolah after living some time, came to the conclusion that it might be better to have a man to help manage her affairs, so she married William Whicker and bore him two children, William and Stephen. Finally she concluded that a man was not always what they were "cracked up to be". They differed and separated and in due time, were divorced, which occurred about the year 1835.

Barbara Fahey gives birth dates of 1786-1788, for Mary, in Westfield, Essex County, New Jersey

From Father's will of 1819:

my land or real estate being the place whereon I now live to be equally divided between them, the said James, Benjamin, Samuel and John and to hold to them the said James, Benjamin, Samuel and John, their heirs and assigns forever all the land aforesaid under the following reserve. If my personal property should not be sufficient to pay to each of my three daughters, Sarah, Phebe, and Serepta $50 each, then and in that case my will is that the said James, Benjamin, Samuel and John shall equally pay one hundred and fifty dollars which I will and bequeath to be equally divided between my three daughters viz: To my daughter Sarah, $50, to my daughter Phebe, $50, to my daughter Serepta $50. I will and bequeath to my daughter Betsy, $2, I will and bequeath to my daughter MARY, $2. I will and bequeath to my daughter, Martha, $2, which is to be paid after the death of my beloved

Margaret Hawk's notes about Mary:

Birth date is estimated, per 1830 census. She was in her father's will, given a small bequest, which may indicate that she had received a previous settlement, perhaps when married. The names of her first five children and the two from her second marriage were found in the article in the Bellbrook Moon which described the circumstances of her marriage to Joseph Vandolah. She was known as "Polly"; probably was born in New Jersey. Her divorce petition from her second husband was filed on December 28, 1829 in Greene County, Ohio (abstracted in "Ohio Divorces:

The Early Years", by Carol W. Bell (1994) and alleged extreme cruelty, that he had beat her and threatened her life. She was granted custody of her two children, and her dower lands from her first marriage were restored to her. In December 1835 her children sold the land they inherited from their father and "included all their right in their mother's right of dower" (Greene Co. Deed Book 17, page 36). No burial record for Polly is found, but she was probably deceased before 1850.

An interesting marriage is noted from the DeKalb County Marriages in the year 1841.

They are nestled in with the Hands and James Vandolah and Lucy Gump and John Tucker. The 1850 census is listed by areas and not alphabetically.

1840 Census of DeKalb County, In No township is given. Found on what may be page 501. It is near the end of the list. Note spelling, but the spelling is notoriously bad on these entries. So far I have found only this one Whicker family in the DeKalb and Allen Co., census entries.

MARY WHICHER

2 Males 15 to 20.....born 1820-1825.....about the right age for William and Stephen
 1 female 40-50.....born 1790-1800.....pretty close for Mary Polly Hand

Also in DeKalb County we find the marriage of William Whicker, probably the son, to Clarissa Adeline Thorp, giving credence that this may be indeed, the mother of William, and the Mary Polly Hand who married Thomas Vandolah. At this time I am not sure how I assumed this was the proper Wm. Whicker, but the age was about right. Need to get Margaret Hawk's booklet on these families to see if there is anything more. It is at the Ft. Wayne Library.

From Barb Crompton, a Whicker descendant:

Sir William Whicker (8-27-1760 to 11-2-1851)

Gives several places of birth:

England

North Carolina

Hanover Co., Virginia

A story written in school by Margaret Gertrude Jeremiah Sharp says that Sir William Whicker "Came to America working as an aide to an officer in the English troops around 1782. He was a nobleman in England. Seeing the struggles and purpose of the American armies, he decided to quit the English Army and join the revolution" Most of her story was verified in an obituary for William H. Whicker, in accordance to the Digest of Obituaries, Columbia City, Whitley County, Indiana, 1856-1910 by Raber.

It is documented that indeed he did work for George Washington's army until the end of the Revolutionary War.

Possible reason for variable places of birth given by Barb, is that he may have felt it necessary after the war to lie about his place of birth and may have felt compelled, for safety's sake, to say he was born in America in one of the two above places.

After the Revolution he settled down to a farming life on land, in Poughkeepsie, Dutchess County, New York, that was granted to him by the Continental Congress. The land in Poughkeepsie was payment for his service in the war and his loss of land in England.

He was married twice. His first wife died and his first group of children married and went off to live on their own.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in managing the company's financial resources and controlling costs. It highlights the importance of budgeting and cost accounting in achieving the company's financial goals.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes by summarizing the key points discussed and emphasizing the overall importance of the accounting system in the success of the company. It reiterates the need for accuracy, transparency, and accountability in financial reporting.

From ACPL in Ft. Wayne, city records of Greene Co., Spring Valley, Sugar Creek Twp., Ohio Rootsweb World Connect Project. William then married Mary Polly Hand Vandolah (1785 died after Dec. 1835) who was born to William Hand (abt. 1760 to Dec. 16, 1819) and Phebe Jennings Hand (1761 to Jan. 14, 1845) in Hunterdon Co., New Jersey. She had been married to Joseph Vandolah (about 1763-1814) who was also born in Hunterdon Co., New Jersey, and they had 5 surviving children from that marriage:

Joseph Vandolah, June 14, 1805

James Vandolah, January 22, 1807

William Vandolah, 1809-1821

Sarah Ann Vandolah, October 1, 1811

Benjamin Henry Vandolah, 1812

Polly was widowed and she felt she needed a man to see to her affairs and that is when she met Sir William Whicker. They were married on April 5, 1819 in Spring Valley, Greene Co., Sugar Creek Twp., Ohio.

So William did start another family in his 60's. William and Mary had two children. Our own William H. Whicker, Jr. and his brother Stephen (about 1823). The little family moved to Cedar Creek Township, Allen County, Indiana, near Huntertown in 1832. Mary divorced William shortly thereafter, claiming spousal abuse. It was decreed, according to Rootsweb that Mary received custody of the children and the return of all her dower rights from her first marriage. She then went back to Greene County, Ohio, to live with a daughter of her first marriage. She died there according to Rootsweb. Barb does not know where she is buried. (From the above census of Allen County in 1850 she would have still been living there at that time with her husband, Samuel Fought.)

Most of the facts that Barb has on William point toward the fact that he died and was buried in Delaware County, Indiana, in the Strong Cemetery. " What makes that information funny is that that person was said to be 63 years old, but he was that old when he married the second time. It looks like William was at least 91 years old. This fact will have to be verified. The 2 children of William and Mary were William and Stephen Whicker.

3. The third part of the paper discusses the implications of the study. It highlights the key findings and their significance for the field of research. It also provides recommendations for future research and practice.

4. The final part of the paper is a conclusion. It summarizes the main points of the study and reiterates the importance of the findings. It also provides a final statement on the value of the research.

The study was conducted using a mixed-methods approach, combining quantitative and qualitative data. The quantitative data was collected through a survey of 100 participants, while the qualitative data was collected through interviews with 10 participants. The survey results showed that the majority of participants (80%) were satisfied with the service provided. However, there were some concerns regarding the quality of the service and the staff's attitude. The interviews revealed that the participants who were dissatisfied with the service had specific reasons for their dissatisfaction, such as long waiting times and poor communication. The study also found that the staff's attitude was a significant factor in the participants' satisfaction. Participants who perceived the staff as friendly and helpful were more likely to be satisfied with the service.

The findings of the study have several implications for the field of research. First, they suggest that the quality of the service and the staff's attitude are important factors in determining customer satisfaction. This finding is consistent with previous research in the field of service quality. Second, the study highlights the need for further research on the factors that influence customer satisfaction. Specifically, it would be useful to investigate the relationship between the staff's attitude and the quality of the service. Finally, the study provides practical recommendations for service providers. Based on the findings, service providers should focus on improving the quality of the service and the staff's attitude to increase customer satisfaction.

In conclusion, the study has provided valuable insights into the factors that influence customer satisfaction. The findings suggest that the quality of the service and the staff's attitude are key determinants of customer satisfaction. The study also highlights the need for further research on the factors that influence customer satisfaction. Finally, the study provides practical recommendations for service providers to improve customer satisfaction. The study is a valuable contribution to the field of research and has the potential to inform practice.

Notes

James VanDolah came to Indiana about 1835 and decided to build his mill here on Cedar Creek. They came from Green County, Ohio, and from Sugar Creek Township. He and Rebecca were married there as on the census we find that Benjamin was born in Ohio, as was the next son Thomas and the rest were born in Indiana.

He built the VanDolah Mill and worked on several others in the area. In 1839 he built a mill in Cedar Creek Township and was called a "famous mill builder".

We find both the VanDolahs and the Tuckers at one time were in Sugar Creek Township, Greene County, Ohio. Would guess they came to Indiana from there. Since both families were millers and Millwrights they probably were close together.

From article in the newspaper: "When Allen County was opened up for settlement, James Vandolah came from Greene County, Ohio. The year was 1832. He found what he wanted in northeast Perry Township and purchased 520 acres direct from the government. The land lay on both sides of Cedar Creek and 100 acres of it straddled the creek bottom, connecting the high land on both sides. The price was $1.25 per acre. The officials with whom James dealt were amazed. Why, Mr. Vandolah, with such a good choice of available land, do you take so much wild creek bottom? He answered I am a millwright and I want the water rights! James went back to Greene County. Three years later he returned and dug the mill race. The following year, 1836 he brought his family to stay.....James chose well, building a house for the family on the south rim, and the mill down close to the creek. The creek curved south on his land and he had cut the mill race across the inside of the curve, and located the mill against the bluff of hill on the west side of the creek and south of what would later become the Auburn Road. James Vandolah was a genius at his trade and the mill was expertly engineered. The mill burr from French stone, was adjustable for fine and course grinding, and everything in the mill worked beautifully."

From the "annals of the townships of Allen County"

James Vandolah, one of the worthy pioneers of Allen County, came to Indiana in 1832, on a tour of inspection, looking for a situation for a water-mill. This he found in Perry Township and then returned to Ohio. In 1835 he came again and remained long enough to dig the race for his mill. In the fall of 1836, he emigrated with his family, and settled on the farm where Benjamin Vandolah now lives. He entered about 400 acres of wild land in Eel River township, 520 in Perry township, and 160 acres in DeKalb County. He was a mill-wright, and devoted much time to his trade, having worked in several mills throughout the country. He built the Shryock mill at Leo, the Dawson mill at Spencerville, the grist mill near Clarksville, his own mill and a number of others. About 1830 he was united in marriage with Rebecca Tucker. Of their eight children, five are still living, Benjamin, Thomas, Sarah J., Frances, and James. Mr. Vandolah served as one of the trustees of his township several terms. He was a leading citizen and was highly respected by all who knew him.

Another bio: James Vandolah first visited Perry Township vicinity in 1832, while searching for a desirable mill site with convenient water power. He located on on Cedar Creek and having secured the land, he returned to Ohio for three years, coming back in 1835, to dig the race for his mill. He then returned for his family and in 1836 they settled on the farms where his sons afterward spent most of their lives. Mr. Vandolah's land holdings were extensive, including not only 520 acres in Perry, but 400 acres in Eel River Township, and a quarter section in DeKalb County. He was an expert millwright, and spent a great part of his time at this trade, having worked at many mills in the middle west. The Shryock Mill at Leo, The Dawson Mill at Spencerville, the gristmill near Clarksville, his own mill and a number of others were built by him. Mr. Vandolah was a township trustee several times. The Vandolah's reared a family of 8 children, five of whom survived the parents, and achieved nonor and

Also John puts a possible child, Charles Vandolah, as James son, but we have no information on him.

From the Bellbrook Moon of Bellbrook, Ohio.....Collection of 1893

James learned the millwright trade, which he followed through his life. He and Samuel Lam built and owned the Washington Mills that burned down a few years ago. He built the Evans Mill below Spring Valley and owned it in partnership with Mr. Evans. John Duck of this place learned the millwright trade under him. He married Rebecca Tucker, who was the daughter of Reason Tucker. They were married at the bride's home at Washington Mills, Squire John James officiating, which event occurred in about the year 1832.

The Vandolah heirs sold their farm to Matthew Berryhill and moved to Clifton and lived a year or two, where Sarah was married and James and his father-in-law built a mill, after which they all moved to Indiana beyond Fort Wayne where James and Mr. Tucker built a mill _____. At last account both James and Joseph were dead.

Land Contract.....JAMES VANDOLAH TO J.SMITH & T. EVANS (James Smith and Thomas Evans)

Indenture made on the 24th day of November, 1834 between James and Rebecca of Greene Co., Ohio, and James Smith and Thomas Evans of Warren County for $12.50 their share in the Mill property on the east side of the Little Miami River. They signed the deal in the presence of David N. James and Mary Whicker as witnesses.

Possible it is not "Mary" Whicker, but if it is, Mary is Jame's mother, Mary Polly Hand Vandolah Whicker. They came before John James and acknowledged the sale. John James was listed as the Justice of the Peace. He may be the same John James who married James and Rebecca. Found in the Greene Co., Ohio Deed Book 18, 359-369. Sent to me by John R. Rohde.

Land Contract.....JAMES VANDOLAH TO MATTHEW BERRYHILL.....recorded March 24, 1834
 Indenture made on 29th day of December, 1834 between James and Rebecca, his wife, and Sarah Ann Vandolah and Benjamin Vandolah all of Greene County, Ohio, and Joseph Vandolah of Allen County, IN, as heirs of Joseph Vandolah, late of Greene County, deceased, and Matthew Berryhill of Green Co. for $3,000 for a tract of land in Sugar Creek Township, southwest quarter in Section 36, township 4, range 5. So they sold their right to that land and their mother's right to it to Matthew Berryhill. Witnessed by William S. Meir (Weir) and William Anderson, probably Sarah's husband or future husband. Joseph signed it in Allen County, IN. The others signed over their part in Greene County, Ohio. Found in the Greene Co., Ohio Deed Book 17; 36. 37. 38. Sent to me by John R. Rohde.

Article on Page 25, Vol. 1, Scrapbook of Clippings from the "Bellbrook Moon" said James was a millwright and had built and operated several mills in Greene County, Ohio, before moving to Indiana. On December 29, 1835, he and Rebecca and his siblings, Joseph, Benjamin, and Sarah Ann sold the land they inherited from their father (Greene County Deed Book 17, page 36). On August 22, 1842, James and Rebecca, then of Allen County, IN, sold land in Greene County, Ohio (Deed book 23, page 58). In 1860 his widow, Rebecca, was in Perry Township, Allen Co., IN.

Notes

Rebecca listed as being born in Virginia in the 1850 census of Allen County, Indiana as 38 years old making her birthdate 1812.

I have read her tombstone as having died February 16, 1881. The Ohio River Families genealogy has her death date as March 16, 1884. I may have to go back to the cemetery to see what the tombstone really says. The printed inscription list also gives the date as Feb. 16, 1884. That would still make her the correct age being born in 1812 and dying in 1884.

Notes

Benjamin Vandolah, the eldest son of James Vandolah and Rebecca Tucker was born in Greene County, Ohio, on April 14, 1834. He was brought to Indiana when he was 3 years old and on the farm where he now lives, was raised to manhood. He was married to Catherine Aaron, daughter of Michael and Elizabeth (Pierce) Aaron. She is a member of the Lutheran Church. He is a prosperous farmer, possessing 180 acres of fine land in Perry township, with substantial buildings. Mr. Vandolah has in his possession a very curious Indian relic which he unearthed 12 years ago.

Benjamin first apparently had been married to Mary Harrod in 1865.

Both of these transactions are from B. Vandolah to the other person. Grantor named first and Grantee named second.

Cemetery records give his dates as 1854-1916, but the birth date has to be wrong as he was married in 1865 to Mary Harrod. Also Since the cemetery records also say he was born in Greene County, Ohio, his birth would have to have been before 1836 at least when the family came to Indiana. They may have come in 1835. Father James had come earlier, but not exactly sure when he brought his family. Brother Thomas was also stated as being born in Greene County, Ohio, in 1836. But the 1854 date has to be wrong. (John Rohde has the date of April 14, 1834)

Notes

Frances grandmother on the Tucker side was named Frances too and probably where she got her name. Not much is known about Frances other than her connection with Matthias Fitch and her children. I have heard no stories about her. Her father was James Vandolah and they came early from Greene County, Ohio. The family seems to have been in the milling business, either building mills or running mills. Though some of her older siblings were born in Greene County, Ohio, Frances was born after they arrived here in Indiana.

Note that she and Matthias were born the same year 1843 and died the same year 1923 and were both 80 years old at the time of their death.
